3. Additional Provisions

- 3.1 Registrations of client advisors, who work for group companies of the same group, are considered together for the fee scale according to section 2.2. This does not apply to subsidiaries that are directly or indirectly less than 50% owned by the parent company of the group.
- 3.2 Financial service providers who are members of an industry association, which ensures minimum standards with regard to education and further training of its members or offers events relating to the FinSA Client Advisor Register, can also benefit from the reduced fee according to section 2.2.1 for their registrations, even if less than five client advisors are registered. For credit card payments, BX Swiss will issue a corresponding payment code upon request.
- 3.3 The fees are also due in the event of refusals and will not be refunded.
- 3.4 According to Art. 41 para. 2 FinSO, the application for renewal of the entry must be submitted at the latest after 24 months.

In accordance with the provisions of the General Fees Ordinance of 8 September 2004 of the Swiss Federal Administration, the fee is fixed for the following year within the legally defined range of CHF 200 - 1000 (Art. 42 para. 2 FIDLEV) until the end of December of each year (first time for the year 2022).

4. Final Provisions

This schedule of fees was approved by the Board of Directors of BX Swiss AG. It will enter into force on 20 July 2020.
